September 13th and 20th 2021

Online sessions - in English

EN

The Universitas Montium Consortium (UNITA) invites all the teaching and administrative staff of its six member universities to attend the very first event of its Teaching & Learning Centers network.

This event is aimed at exchanging good practices on student-centered pedagogies, with a particular focus on collaborative learning and transversal skills. This event will take place in the form of online conferences and workshops occurring on Mondays September 13 and 20, 2021. During these days, professors will be able to share their projects, discuss topics and issues regarding distance teaching in Higher Education, and exchange good practices regarding various topics such as student engagement online, motivation, assessment, use of Moodle and interactive tools for teaching, etc. You will find the detailed program of these meeting days below.
